Judge Mann Succumbs to Illness

Judge Russell Mann, ex-County Judge of Bourbon, Confederate soldier and prominent lawyer, died at his home on Pleasant street in this city yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock after an illness of several weeks of general debility.

About five weeks ago Judge Mann suffered an attack and has since been confined to his bed, although previous to that time he had a slight illness which confined him to his room for about a week, the direct cause being rheumatism from which he had been a constant sufferer for a number of years.

At the opening of the Civil War Judge Mann entered the service of the Confederate army enlisting in Company C, Ninth Kentucky, in the company of Capt. Ed Taylor, and served in the command of General John H. Morgan. In this company he participated in all the principal events and campaigns of General Morgan, up to the time the intrepid cavalry leader started with his command on the Ohio raid, when the company under Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge was transferred to the command of General Wheeler.

Judge Mann was a native of Nicholas county, but early in life moved with his parents to Millersburg, where they resided for a number of years. Prior to his removal to Paris he resided on a farm and engaged in the pursuit of agriculture. He began the practice of law and first served this county in the capacity of County Attorney.

On September 26, 1888, the Bourbon Fiscal Court by a unanimous vote elected him to the office of County Judge to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge Matt Turney, and served until August 1889 when he was nominated by the Democratic party and elected for a term of four years. In 1894 he was a candidate for re-election but was defeated in the regular election by Judge H. C. Howard, who succeeded him in January 1895.

Under the appointment of Governor J. C. W. Beckham Judge Mann was made Master Commissioner of the Bourbon Circuit Court on June 28, 1905, which office he held until the time of his death. He was a prominent member of the Bourbon bar and one of the best known attorneys of Central Kentucky.

Until his late illness he has always taken an active part in the affairs of the Confederate Veterans Association, of which he was a member. He is survived by his wife, who before marriage was Miss Kate Hutchcraft, two sons, Mr. Whittington Mann, of Paris, and Attorney Ray Mann, of Louisville, three daughters, Mrs. Walter Kenney, Mrs. R. S. Swango and Mrs. W. K. Dudley, of Paris.

Up to a late hour last night the funeral arrangements had not been completed.

May Be Wanted in Atlanta For Murder.

Thomas Woods, colored, alias Harry Matthews, alias Harry Stewart, was arrested and landed in jail Monday night by Patrolman Fred Link, on a charge of robbery, and according to information may be a fugitive from Atlanta, Ga., wanted in that city for murder.

The arrest of Woods came about after a week of clever work on the part of Patrolman Link, who has been on the close lookout for a number of thieves that have been operating in this city. Woods, it is believed, is at the head of an organized band that have centered their operations on the groceries and other stores in Paris, and have succeeded in making away with a large amount of goods.

A few weeks ago the News published an account of a very bold and successful scheme on the part of the negroes in the theft of goods from various grocery stores and when the matter was reported to the police Patrolman Link went to work on the case. Sunday night he met Woods on the street and on being unable to give a satisfactory account of where he had been during the night was told by the officer to go to his home. This move of the officer was for the purpose of getting an idea of where the negro was staying.

Woods succeeded in getting away but on Monday night Patrolman Link came across him again, and on this occasion he was carrying a bundle. Link followed him to the restaurant of Rachel Jefferson on Eighth street, where he arrested the negro who was making an effort to dispose of the package, which contained a side of bacon, to the negroes.

Woods was employed with a construction company here and a companion has given the information to the officers that the negro is wanted in Atlanta, Ga., for murder. Woods admitted to the officers that he came here from Atlanta. The local department communicated with the police department of that city, and a reply is expected at any time. It is said a big reward is offered for the capture of the Atlanta murderer, and in case Woods should be the man wanted by the Atlanta police, this reward will go to Patrolman Link.

Will Smith, a negro, who it is said has been associated with Woods and others in their operations in Paris was arrested Wednesday night by Patrolmen Link and McKenney and locked up. It is expected the remainder of the organized band will be run in within the next few days. Their arrest will have the effect of breaking up the boldest band of thieves that ever struck Paris.
